Commonly Asked Questions

Who is protected by the National Panhellenic Conference Insurance Program?

The General Liability policy defines an insured as the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), and the College and Alumnae Panhellenic Associations. Any member, employee or volunteer is also an insured, while they are acting on behalf of these Entities. NPC has purchased a comprehensive policy to protect you should you be named in a lawsuit while acting on their behalf.

Are all activities covered by the insurance policies?

The General Liability policy covers premises liability as well as operations liability. This would include coverage for any typical event that is held off premises, such as philanthropic events, dances or social events. Virtually all NPC sponsored activities are covered; however, intentional acts, that produce a loss, are not covered. The policies are very comprehensive and do protect NPC and its members.

Is the exposure for alcohol related activities covered by the insurance policies?

We have been successful in securing host liquor liability coverage which is similar to the type of coverage you would have as a homeowner. This coverage protects an Insured should they be named in a civil lawsuit where someone was injured due to the consumption of alcohol. This coverage will respond as long as the courts interpret that the Insured is not in the business of serving, selling, manufacturing, furnishing or distributing alcoholic beverages. It is extremely important that all members of NPC follow their organization's policy on alcohol.

If I am injured during a NPC sponsored event, will the NPC insurance policy pay for my injuries?

When a member or volunteer is injured during a NPC sponsored event, they need to rely on their own medical insurance to pay for their injuries, unless NPC is grossly negligent in causing their injuries. The General Liability policy is there to defend you should you be named in a lawsuit. It is not a substitute for a personal medical insurance policy.

If I rent an automobile to use for NPC business, will I be covered by the NPC policy?

The renting of automobiles creates a substantial risk for NPC and thus NPC policy no longer allows the renting of automobiles by any chapters or volunteers of NPC. This includes any type of transportation, including an automobile, a commercial vehicle or a recreational vehicle.
