2019-20 NPC Student Advisory Committee Members Announced

INDIANAPOLIS — The National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) has named 10 college and university students from 10 different member organizations to serve as members of the 2019-20 NPC Student Advisory Committee.

“The Student Advisory Committee provides a way to ensure the student perspective is included in our advocacy efforts,” said NPC Chief Executive Officer Dani Weatherford. “The committee’s input is vitally important to help NPC build even stronger Panhellenic communities across the United States and Canada and ensure the current and future experience for collegiate sorority women remains valuable and relevant.”

Now in its second year, the Student Advisory Committee helps to support the work of NPC to advance the sorority experience together, represent the collegiate woman’s perspective and provide suggestions on existing Panhellenic programs from NPC and offer ideas for new initiatives. Student Advisory Committee members also will serve as brand ambassadors for NPC.

The students on the committee gain valuable experience working firsthand with NPC leadership and staff and learning more about NPC’s goals, objectives and strategies for being the premier advocacy and support organization for the advancement of the sorority experience.
