National Panhellenic Conference Recognizes Collegiate Associations

45 College Panhellenics across the U.S. and Canada Recognized for Excellence and Achievement in Panhellenic Operations

INDIANAPOLIS — The National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), one of the largest advocacy organizations for women, is pleased to announce that 45 College Panhellenic Associations are being recognized with awards for excellence and achievement in their work to advance the sorority experience.

“NPC is proud to recognize the hard work of our College Panhellenics in striving for Panhellenic excellence,” said Linda Henderson, NPC College Panhellenics Committee chairman. “They have demonstrated a commitment to upholding high standards for their College Panhellenic as well as ensuring the sorority experience is beneficial to all members on their campus.”

NPC has recognized student-led College Panhellenic Associations with awards for more than 50 years and has used the excellence and achievement structure since 2013. With NPC member organization chapters located at more than 670 U.S. and Canadian college and universities, only the top-scoring groups are honored.

College Panhellenic Associations are cooperatives comprised of all NPC member sororities on a campus. They are scored on seven criteria of value to all campuses. The 26 Excellence Award recipients exhibited excellence in all seven criteria. The 19 Achievement Award recipients demonstrated excellence in five or six criteria.

The seven criteria are:

- Academics
- Communications with NPC area advisor
- Judicial procedures
- Panhellenic community impact and relations
- Panhellenic programming
- Panhellenic structure
- Recruitment

The 2018-2019 College Panhellenics being recognized are:
