

Meet Jamison Carson

Panhellenic support specialist

Education: University of Houston, B.A.
University of Mississippi, M.A.
Affiliation: Chi Omega
Email: jamison@npcwomen.org

The Panhellenic support specialist works to provide assistance and resources to College Panhellenic Associations, Alumnae Panhellenic Associations, NPC volunteers, campus partners and NPC member organizations.

Specifically, Jamison is responsible for:

- Serving as a staff liaison to College Panhellenic Associations and the volunteers who work with associations for the Mid-America South and Southeast regions.
- Building relationships with and serving as a resource to fraternity/sorority advisors and other campus partners.
- Serving as a staff liaison to Alumnae Panhellenic Associations and the volunteers who work with those groups.
- Developing relationships with chapter/member services staff of NPC member organizations and facilitating education/discussion regarding NPC policies and activities.
- Reviewing, evaluating and communicating to all NPC constituencies regarding policies, documents or actions that infringe upon the rights of NPC member organizations.
- Coordinating annual updates to College Panhellenic reports.
- Collaborating to create and distribute communications, web resources and newsletters to College Panhellenics.
- Presenting training/education programs on Panhellenic topics.
- Organizing and executing the annual awards programs for College Panhellenics.
- Distributing RFM reports.

Jamison serves as the staff liaison for the following committees:

- Alumnae Panhellenics
- College Panhellenics
- Panhellenic Extension

Top five strengths according to StrengthsFinder assessment:

- Input
- Learner
- Restorative
- Strategic
- Achiever